

Learning Enterprise 2021

Professional ▪ Community ▪ Global Education

Lactation Education Programs	Certificate in Health Innovation Leadership	Fundamentals of Healthcare for Veterans	Health Policy Academy
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Series focusing on accessible and inclusive lactation education through one comprehensive 95-hour course or three component courses: Fundamentals of Human Lactation, Communication and Counseling for Lactation Consultants, and Advanced Human Lactation. The curriculum meets the clinical competencies for the Practice of International Board Certification Lactation Consultants. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Series of four modules designed for health management professionals who want to learn how to develop an innovation strategy that aligns with their organization's goals. Emphasizes systems thinking in complex environments, advanced innovation concepts and principles, and how to be future-ready for disruptive innovations. Offered in partnership with Thunderbird School of Global Management. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Series of eight modules promoting the delivery of ethical, quality and safe care for veterans, military patients and their families. This course leads to certification recognized by the American Psychological Association, the Association of Social Work Boards, and Joint Accreditation for Interprofessional Continuing Education. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Self-guided program that educates health professionals about the policy concerns underlying current issues, the political framework surrounding them and how to be an effective advocate. Program offered as either a 45-hour, fully-online module or a 3-week course with a 3-day immersion at the state capitol.
Audience	Audience	Audience	Audience
Aspiring lactation consultants and those eager to add breastfeeding support to their professional practice.	Health management professionals who want to learn how to develop an innovation strategy that aligns with their organization's goals.	Community medical and mental health care providers.	Health professionals wishing to gain experience in the policy or advocacy space.
Up to 95 Continuing Education credits	Up to 9 credits towards MHI degree	45 Continuing Education credits

Learning Enterprise 2021

Professional ▪ Community ▪ Global Education

Introduction to Adult ICU Nursing and Mechanical Ventilation (Free) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Series of seven modules introducing non-ICU nurses to the ICU setting. Focuses on care of the critically ill and mechanically-ventilated patient, as well as management of shock, titratable IV drips and more. 	Learning Together: Teamwork Toolkit for the Clinical Learning Environment <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Series of seven modules that develop essential knowledge, skills and tools for building an optimal interprofessional Clinical Learning Environment. 	Lactation Clinical Internship <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Internship opportunity offering 530 hours of clinical experience, split into three sections: Observation of IBCLC Mentor and Skills lab, Transition to Clinical Practice, and Supervised Independent Practice. The curriculum meets the supervised clinical internship requirement for the Practice of International Board Certification Lactation Consultants. 	Foundations of Clinical Research Management <ul style="list-style-type: none"> These courses provide a strong foundation on Ethics in Research, FDA Regulations for Human Subject Research and Clinical Research Operations. Offering three 45 hour courses as a bundle or as independent courses.
Audience	Audience	Audience	Audience
This course intends to introduce non-ICU nurses to the ICU setting.	Health professions students and clinicians.	Aspiring lactation consultants and those eager to add breastfeeding support to their professional practice.	Potential clinical research management students and working professionals seeking recertification.